

Parts of Speech - Working Words

Write the answer to each item on the line before the item.

1. _____ These words are substitutes - they take the place of other words.
2. _____ These words can be locators, comparers, or connectors - they show relationships between certain kinds of words.
3. _____ These words are the engines that power sentences - they show actions or express a state of being.
4. _____ These words are describers - they describe nouns & other words of their own kind.
5. _____ These words are connectors - they join words or parts of a sentence.
6. _____ These words are describers - they tell how, when, where, how much, or to what extent.
7. _____ These words are outsiders - they express emotions but they aren't really part of the sentence.
8. _____ These words are namers.

WORD BANK

interjections
verbs
conjunctions
nouns

pronouns
adjectives
prepositions
adverbs

